

Out of the Ricefields

A Georgetown Library Humanities Council grant project

Please join us for our fifth lecture:

The African-American Camp Meeting Tradition in the Lowcountry

Sunday, August 16th

2:30—4:00 p.m.

Georgetown Library, 405 Cleland Street

Dr. Minuette Floyd will focus on describing the camp meetings that take place annually in this coastal area. Through forty-two photographs from seven camp meetings in North Carolina and in South Carolina, Dr. Floyd has captured the essence and the importance of these traditional Lowcountry gatherings.
